Online Teaching Activities

The College Management has made elaborate arrangements for Online teaching to complete the syllabus of the students. Since the clamping of lockdown, all the faculty members have been using latest means of communications to enable the students to go through the systematic teaching process. The comprehensive assignments consisting of important questions have been given to the students by the faculty members. The teachers are focusing on clearing the doubts of the students.

The Principal has been making regular contact with the students and their parents to know about their well-being and online teaching activities. They had words of appreciation for everyone involved in their testing time.

Activities Beyond Syllabus....

Apart from online teaching, a special session was conducted on "How can we capitalise during lockdown on the stock market?". The session was chaired by the Principal.

Another activity of poster making related to creating awareness among the people about the containment of COVID-19 was taken up by Women Empowerment Club of the college.

Upcoming Events

The college will be holding periodically Counseling sessions / Webinars on important topics. To start with, the first Webinar is planned on "Careers in Commerce" after +2 and the next one will be a Foundation Course on "Online Trading". The details will be intimated shortly.
