ORIENTATION PROGRAMME

Full time offline classes for the new batch of students commenced from 20 September, 2021. An orientation programme was arranged for the students wherein they were introduced to the college and the teachers. An introduction was provided about unique programs run in the college like Company Formation Programme, Online Stock Market classes, Digital English Language Lab, Scholarship Schemes. They were also informed about the clubs and forums available in the college. Prof. (Dr.) Rama Arora, Principal, welcomed all the students and wished them luck for their intellectual journey with GGDSD institute.

RECREATIONAL PROGRAMME

The literary Club of the college organized a recreational programme for the students present in the college campus. Students narrated motivational short stories, recited poems by renowned poets like Harivansh Rai Bachchan, Shiv Kumar Batalvi and sang songs celebrating the rich culture of Punjab.

The programme was arranged to boost up the students and strengthen their morale amidst the ongoing difficult times. Prof. (Dr.) Rama Arora, Principal, encouraged the students to come to the forefront and build their confidence by actively participating in such activities.

WORKSHOP ON FACE MASKS

In current times of Covid-19 pandemic Mrs. Kaushalya Devi Verma Charitable Skill Development centre of the college, organised a two days' workshop for designing and making face masks on 24-25th September, 2021.

These masks will be distributed among needy students of the college. This activity was organised to inculcate philanthropic values among students.
