Counselling Session for Class 12 Students

On May 13, 2025, a group of 17 students from NTC School, Rajpura, visited GGDSD College, Kheri Gurna, Banur, as part of an educational trip designed to broaden their understanding of higher education and campus life. The visit began, with a warm welcome from the faculty members of College. The students were first given a brief introduction to the history of the college and its role in providing quality education in various fields. They were informed about the different undergraduate and postgraduate programs offered by the institution. This visit aimed to provide the students with insights into the academic environment of college and to encourage them to think about their future academic and career aspirations.
